

Collective Worship Council

We love celebrating our Church school status 😊

Collective worship council shared special artefacts in their own lives and explained what made them special and how they use them in their everyday life.

Our church school friends from our local churches and consultancy provider joined us with their special items.

